

Agreement

This is an agreement between MBS and _____ (hereafter referred to as The Store).
(Your Bookstore Name)

- 1) MBS agrees to allow The Store to make accessible to The Store's campus faculty, adjunct faculty and academic departmental personnel the MBS Faculty Center Network, through The Store's Web site and other campus Web sites approved by MBS. MBS will provide to The Store selected banners and the required URL for use in connecting to the Faculty Center Network, located at www.facultycenter.net. Only those banners and the URL supplied by MBS may be used on The Store's Web site and other campus Web sites.
- 2) The Store agrees to provide to The Store's campus faculty, adjunct faculty and academic departmental personnel the user name and password provided to The Store by MBS. This user name and password is used strictly for The Store's campus faculty, adjunct faculty and academic departmental personnel in accessing the Faculty Center Network.
- 3) The Store agrees that the data found within the Faculty Center Network, particularly data regarding textbook ranking and textbook usage by campus, is under MBS copyright and may not be used or reproduced for any reason without the expressed written consent of MBS.
- 4) The terms of this agreement are for as long as deemed mutually agreeable by MBS and The Store. Either party may end the terms of this agreement with a seven-day notification to the other with subsequent acknowledgment of that information. Upon termination of this agreement, The Store is to certify in writing that all links to the MBS Faculty Center Network have been removed from The Store's Web site and, if applicable, other campus Web sites.
- 5) The Store grants to MBS and the MBS Faculty Center Network a nonexclusive license to use The Store's name for the purpose of advertising and marketing the Faculty Center Network.
